History

The Dubuque Camera Club can trace its history all the way back to the pioneering days of photography. The club was mentioned in an early photography magazine: The Photographic Times and American Photographer (vol. XIX, 1899, p. 360).

The club was active in the 1920s and 30s as a YMCA program. In 1942, the club was chartered as the Dubuque YMCA Camera Club (Telegraph Herald, Jan. 11, 1942). The club became affiliated with the N4C about three decades ago.

Today, more than 30 tri-state photographers are active in the Dubuque Camera Club. Skill levels range from advanced beginner to experienced pro shooter.

Most club members use digital cameras and image editing software such as Lightroom and Photoshop. Technology and post-processing is every bit as important as making that click!

We enjoy many different photographic genres, such as landscape, portrait, architectural, concert, macro, bird and wildlife, or drone photography. Whatever your favorite subject and style, you may find someone who shares your interest in the Dubuque Camera Club!

N4C

The Dubuque Camera Club is affiliated with the North Central Camera Club Council (N4C), a group of 37 midwestern photography clubs. For more information visit the N4C website at n4c.us

In 2018, our club hosted Blufftops & Visions, the annual N4C convention, right here in Dubuque, Iowa!

We submit to the following N4C categories:

DP: Digital Pictorial
DN: Digital Nature
DT: Digital Travel
DB: Digital Black & White
DJ: Digital Journalism
DA: Altered Reality

Competition images are judged on the basis of technique, composition, and interest. Great pictures result from not only a photographer's technical skills, but from artistry and a compelling subject.

Looking for a challenge? Submit your photos to the next N4C contest! Submissions are typically due by the first club meeting of each month. Only active club members are eligible to compete in N4C photography contests.
